

The Gresham Historical Society will meet Monday, September 12, 1977, in the Court Room above the Senior Adult Center at 7:30 p.m. The Directors' Meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. Harold Scofield, from Lake Oswego, will give a slide/biographical sketch of several area pioneers.

Mount Hood College has offered a room in its Art Mall for the Historical Society to use as a museum. We will begin plans for the museum by appointing a committee at Monday night's meeting.

Also on the agenda for Monday evening's meeting is a discussion for plans of a second Barlow Trail trek sometime in October. The areas to be covered have been cleaned out by boyscouts and forest service and many parts are walkable. We will be traveling from Barlow Pass to Government Camp on this segment of the trek.

The following are excerpts from the Sept. 19, 1911, Gresham Outlook:

At a special election held Mon. for the voting of water bonds, 100 votes were cast: 92 for the measure, 6 against. The bonds will be advertised soon and it is hoped the actual work of installing a water system will have begun in a few weeks.

Smith's anti-cow kicker is guaranteed to do the work. A boy can put on and take off and no man's cow can kick while on. This we guarantee and 2 buckets of milk kicked over during this the fly season will more than pay for one.

More rain fell during the 1st half of Sept. ending yesterday than has fallen in any complete Sept. in Portland's history. The total rainfall from Sept. 1 - 15 was 4.88 in., which was an excess over the normal of 4.21 in.

A trip thru the valley reminds one forcibly of the loss sustained by farmers as a result of recent rains. On almost every farm grain and hay lie uncovered, hop growers have suffered and much fruit has been beaten to the ground by hail and wind.

Miss Annie A. Robbins, formerly nurse U.S. Army hospitals, now national lecturer and organizer of the W.C.T.U., will speak at the Meth. Church next Sunday, both morning and evening, in the interests of the temperance cause. No question is more vital to the future welfare of Gresham so a large attendance and great interest is expected.
